The Preparatory School.

This School is connected with Emory College. The Terms commence and end at the same time with those of the College.

Young men who avail themselves of the facilities here afforded, will receive such a course of instruction as will prepare them for College, as thoroughly and as soon as practicable. Those not wishing to enter College will receive instruction in any course they may desire to pursue. The general deportment of the Pupils will be governed by the statutes and regulations of the College.

COLLEGE COURSE.

TERMS OF ADMISSION.

Candidates for admission into the Freshman Class will be examined upon English Grammar, Arithmetic, Algebra, through equations of the first degree, Cæsar's Gallic War, the Æneid of Virgil, (six books,) Cicero's Select Orations, and Bullion's Greek Reader. Bullions' Latin and Greek Grammars are preferred.

Parents cannot be too strongly urged to see that their sons are thoroughly prepared. Certificates of good moral character will in all cases be required.

Those who, in addition to the above named studies, can pass a rigid and satisfactory examination on any portion of the "College Course of Study," will be admitted to higher classes, in proportion to their attainments.

Believing that great injury has been done to young men by yielding (as we have occasionally done heretofore,) to the entreaties of parents to admit their sons to higher classes than their attainments will justify, we announce our determination, for the future, to be rigid in our adherence to these terms. After examination, (if satisfactory,) each applicant will be furnished with a copy of the laws of the College, and after having time to read them carefully, will (AS HIS OWN VOLUNTARY ACT,) subscribe his name to the pledge in our "Matriculation Book," thereby pledging himself to observe strictly, every one of them during his continuance in the Institution. If he cannot cheerfully take this pledge, he will be requested to return home at once.

When circumstances require the enactment of new laws, announcements of such will be made publicly, and continuance in the Institution, after such announcements, will be understood as an obligation to observe them.

When any student who has taken this pledge feels a propensity, which he cannot or will not resist, to violate it, let him at once sever his connection with the Institution, rather than violate his promise. We do not desire the admission of any one whose regard for a sacred pledge is not potent to secure his obedience to law. This is of the highest importance to us as being our only security for the maintenance of good order. Young men who have not been taught to be slaves to their word, and to feel, after having made a promise, that they have no right to do otherwise, would do well to go where other instrumentalities are employed to secure good order.

We call the special attention of parents and teachers to this section. We send copies of our Catalogue to teachers whose address is known to us, and request that they read this section to those of their students whom they propose to recommend to us for admission.

EXAMINATION.

There will be an examination of all the Classes, at the close of the Second Term.

Students absent at the time of any regular Examination, will be examined immediately on their return, before joining their classes.

Those whose scholarship will not justify their admission to a higher class, will be required to go over again the studies of the previous year, or retire at once from the Institution.

COMMENCEMENT, &c.

Commencement Day.—Wednesday after 3d Monday in July.

TERMS.

The first Term commences on the 3d Wednesday in August, and closes on the last school day in November.

The second Collegiate term commences on the third Wednesday in January, and closes on Wednesday after the third Monday in July.

EXPENSES.

	Spring Term.	Fall Term.
Tuition,	$30.00	$20.00

BOOKS.

The following books of referenee are recommended to the Students:

Anthon's Classical Dictionary, Smith's Dictionary of Greek and Roman Antiquities, Anthon's Ancient Geography, Findlay's Ancient Atlas, Webster's Unabridged Quarto Dictionary, Kuhner's large Greek Grammar, Brande's Encyclopedia of Art, Literature and Science.

The above, with Text Books, and a good supply of choice miscellaneous works, are furnished at the College on reasonable terms.

APPARATUS & MINERAL CABINET.

The College is supplied with suitable Apparatus for illustrations in the Department of Natural Science.

The Mineral Cabinet is one of the largest in the South.

FEW AND PHI GAMMA SOCIETIES.

These Associations afford fine facilities to the students of the College for improvement in composition, declamation and discussion. They have beautiful and commodious halls on the campus, at which they meet every Saturday, and spend a large portion of the day in these important exercises. They have well-furnished Libraries, which with the College Library, give them access to about 6,000 volumes. Additions are made to all of these Libraries annually.

TO PARENTS AND GUARDIANS.

Circulars giving the standing and deportment of Students will be sent to parents and guardians.

When any Student from habitual idleness, inattention to duties, and want of proficiency and progress, is found flagging in his exercises, the cause is kindly inquired into, and if, after suitable attempts to reform him, he is incorrigible, the President will write to his parent or guardian and inform him of the facts, and request his withdrawal from the Institution without notoriety or disgrace.

Every Student is required to attend divine service in the morning and afternoon of each Sabbath in the church of the village, unless special permission is obtained to attend religious worship elsewhere.

Again, we earnestly admonish parents that thorough preparation is beyond all price. The Scholarship always, and sometimes the moral character of a student, depends on it.

The sons of traveling preachers of the Georgia and of the Florida Conference are not charged for tuition.

WILLIAMS' FUND.

Through the personal beneficence of Geo. W. Williams, of Charleston, there is a fund of Five Thousand Dollars, the interest of which will be used in paying the tuition, and in some cases, the board, of indigent young men who are preparing for the Christian ministry in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.
